Believe in Good Care

Agincare has launched their ‘Believe in Good Care’ scheme to remind everyone just what good social care provision means to the lives of those who receive it. Why do it? Negative stories about illness and ageing in modern society, with social and health care scandals and allegations of poor care often hit the headlines. There often seems focus on what has gone wrong, rather than what goes well. Consequently, we have a demoralised, as well as diminishing, care workforce. We put off prospective applicants to the care sector and we risk frightening people who need care and support. We know you care and are working hard every day with people who need you. Thank you. Look on our website to read the many, many positive comments people give us that you will probably never read in the paper.

Hi Guys, welcome to our care worker newsletter,

A warm welcome to some new staff: Samah Kassem, Jacqui Parsons, Joanne Howard, Rachel Woodford, Sam Warne, Paula Pearson, Paula Rolph, Denise House, Georgia Burt, Vivien Gudgeon and Tibor Csik.

Welcome back Ann Savill and Gill Lindsay.

We do believe that our very own Sheila Tyndale-Biscoe could be Agincare’s oldest care worker so congratulations to Sheila (Mum).
Big congratulations to our Chloe who got married last week. After 2 years of planning the BIG day finally arrived and it was a beautiful day.

Chloe and Tom were and are a gorgeous couple.

Our ‘Refer a Friend’ is still on-going therefore if you know someone who wants a rewarding career, we have various hours available and if they are successful you will receive £25 when they start and £25 when they have been with us for 3 months.

December’s ‘care worker of the month’ is

Sally David – Congratulations!!

Christmas is just around the corner so we hope you have a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year and thank you all so much for the hard work you put in over the past year and let’s look forward to a happy 2016.

You know you're getting older when...

Everything that works hurts and what doesn't hurt doesn't work.

You feel like the morning after, and you haven't been anywhere.

Your little black book only contains names ending in M.D.

Your children are beginning to look middle-aged.

Your mind makes contracts your body can't keep.

You look forward to a dull evening.

Your knees buckle and your belt won’t.

Your back goes out more than you do.

You sink your teeth into a steak, and they stay there.

You know all the answers, but nobody asks the questions.
