

“Many thanks for the excellent standard of care that your agency provides as I would not be able to live independently without it!”

Support Services

Agincare is committed to supporting young people and adults with a learning disability to be as independent as possible. Our support workers are there to help people achieve this and are trained to understand people’s needs and to listen to what people want.

- Personal Care - assisting with bathing and dressing
 - Emotional Support - reducing anxiety and helping to solve problems
 - Social Inclusion - helping people to stay in touch with others
 - Listening - 'hearing' what people are saying about how they want to organise their life
 - Information - helping people to make choices by getting them the right information
 - Life Skills - helping people to deal with the practicalities of everyday life, such as menu planning, cleaning and budgeting
 - Respite - providing support when needed for carers
